FROM THE TEAM DIRECTORS:

Hello everyone,

Well the days are getting by in a hurry and the countdown to the fall weekends is quickly approaching. I hope you all are as excited as I am in preparing for this awesome opportunity God has entrusted us with. I would like for all of us to follow the example given in God's word in regard to preparing ourselves to come into His presence.

We need to make ourselves "ready" by allowing His cleansing power to perform its work in our lives. We are His ambassadors representing the King. I believe it is our obligation to go before the throne with a repentant heart and to set our mind, body, soul and spirit to do His good pleasure. We are God's modern day priests who are appointed the task of ministering in His holy temple (our own bodies). As they did in the Old Testament so should we approach this duty with the utmost reverence and sobriety.

While the tendency to look forward to a time of fellowship and reacquainting is naturally anticipated, let us not forget the real reason we will be coming together. Our primary purpose is to present Jesus Christ to these pilgrims, anything short of this is a failure on our part. To show up and not have this sole purpose in our hearts would be a great disservice to both the pilgrims and this ministry. The Word tells us to be instant in season and out of season, in other words we are to stay ready at all times in His service.

We need to realize the enemy is not laying up on the couch eating hoho's watchin the soaps, he is diligent in his quest to turn as many hearts as he can against our Lord and Savior. We must be even more diligent in our efforts to turn as many hearts to the Lord as we can. There is a war going on and whether we realize it or not battles are being lost due to our apathy.

This ministry affords us a tremendous opportunity to not only win souls but strengthen our brothers and sisters in the Lord. Again I ask you, please make yourselves ready family. It is time once again to go into the battle and rise victorious as we raise the banner of Jesus Christ and show the world we are and will continue to be a force to be reckoned with.

After that little exhortation I would like to make mention of a couple other ideas that Curtis and I have discussed concerning the talks. Wouldn't it be awesome if each speaker made it a point to know who is speaking and what their topic is before and after him or her? If each of us made the effort to do this, we could then enhance each of the talks by complimenting or reaffirming those on either side of us. Along with this, if each speaker would intentionally make themselves aware of the upcoming events taking place throughout the weekend and govern their talks to compliment each event - what an impact this could have on the whole experience.

Curtis has made mention of the fact that whoever put these talks and sequences of events together was a highly anointed individual as each one has the opportunity to flow so well with the next. I agree and feel we should take advantage of what God has obviously already ordained. If you have been asked to give a talk on either of the upcoming weekends, please be in prayer about these suggestions and while we're on the subject of praying- won't each speaker pray for those who are before and behind them from now on through the walks.

Before I close out here I really would like everyone who possibly can to please do your very best to attend the training for the upcoming weekends. This helps ensure we are all on the same wave length and of course we want to be in one mind and one accord right?

I want to personally say thank you to all who have agreed to work these weekends as I know there is a certain amount of sacrifice required. You all are already aware of the wonderful blessings that will occur because of your willingness to serve, however I still want you to know how much I appreciate you for agreeing with me in His service. I look forward to seeing and visiting with each of you as always Jesus is Lord

Psalm 84:11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

We appreciate Ed and Lydia's commitment, efforts and love for the HG ministry and lift them in prayer as the fall weekends are quickly approaching.
